69th INFANTRY DIVISION 23d ARMY SHEN-YANG MILITARY REGION, CHINA

ABSTRACT

1. This report locates and delineates the major elements of the 69th Infantry Division, 23d Army, Shen-yang Military Region, China. The report is based on photographic coverage and contains a location map, a table, and a photograph. The purpose of this report is to combine point targets into target areas to provide more meaningful analysis and reporting.

INTRODUCTION

2. The 69th Infantry Division (Figures 1 and 2) is one of three infantry divisions subordinate to the 23d Army. The 23d Army is the northernmost army deployed in the Shen-yang Military Region (MR), and the 69th Infantry Division, at Chi-chi-ha-erh, protects the northwest sector of the MR. The division consists of three infantry regiments and one artillery regiment. No AAA or tank/assault gun regiments appear to be assigned to this division.

BASIC DESCRIPTION

3. A table (inset, Figure 2) lists the units in the 69th Infantry Division with their installation names, geographic coordinates, and BE numbers.
